THE WOOLEY WILD WEST.

*Paramount Bray cartoon #78
Animated cartoon by A. D. Reed*

The Wooley Wild West an eccentric cowboy starts to shoot up a bar-room, shooting everything out of the window, even the coal stove and beer barrels, etc. He finally shoots at the house; house moves in front of him, he chasing it with his bullets. A cyclone comes; house whirls and cowboy and his horse land on top of cyclone and are carried away to a far off station, where the wind throws him right in the station house in which a girl attends to the telegraphy. He ties her arms and robs the safe, and the girl telegraphs with her nose to her sweetheart. He comes and saves her and they are united by a minister after a violent chase by the the villain, to get her away from the morning train on which the villain tied her.
